

Mr. Prashant Kokil

Mr Prashant Kokil is an Environmental professional with 36 years of hands-on experience in Environmental Pollution Control and Governance, Obtaining Environmental Clearances and Consents/ Permits, Environmental Legal Compliance, Compliance to environmental conditions in loan agreements with National and International lenders, Environment and Sustainability related Risk Assessment and Mitigation Planning, Environmental Due Diligence for Mergers, Take-overs and Acquisitions in India and abroad, International Voluntary Disclosures like Global Compact (GC), Global Reporting Initiative (GRI), Carbon Disclosure Project (CDP), Strategic planning for future changes in Environmental Regulations etc. As Head of Corporate Environment and Climate Change department of The Tata Power Company Ltd., he has hands on experience of Environment Management in Thermal, Hydro and Renewable Generation, Transmission and Distribution segments. He is also associated with Mumbai University as visiting Faculty for its post graduate course on Sustainable Development and Environment Management.

Mr. Kokil has done his Masters in Inorganic Chemistry with specialization in Control and Analysis of Pollutants and is a qualified safety professional. He was actively involved in various beyond compliance initiatives of Tata Power, like Carbon Capture Using Sea Water Algae, Marine Studies for Tata Power's Coastal Projects, Hot water Recirculation Studies for Thermal Power Plants, Coal Handling in Mumbai Port, Mahseer Conservation and Genetic Fingerprinting of Mahseer, Flamingo Study in Siwree, Migratory Bird Study for Maithon, Jharkhand, Project Sanjivani to quantitatively estimate Carbon storage in the large scale plantations carried out in Hydro catchment, Biodiversity Strategy for Hydro Station in Georgia.